Lily has grown up believing she accidentally killed her mother when she was four. Living on a peach farm in South Carolina with her father, she has only one friend: Rosaleen, a black servant.

When racial tension explodes one summer afternoon, and Rosaleen is arrested and beaten, Lily is compelled to act. Fugitives from justice, the pair follow a trail left by the woman who died ten years before. Finding sanctuary in the home of three beekeeping sisters, Lily starts a journey as much about her understanding of the world, as about the mystery surrounding her mother.

We shall be meeting to discuss this book on Wednesday 11th April 2018, in the Church Lounge at 8 p.m.. Further details from Shelagh Dixon, tel. 2306940.
