Maud is forgetful. She goes to the shops and forgets why she went. Sometimes her daughter Helen seems a total stranger. But there's one thing Maud is sure of: her friend Elizabeth is missing. The note in her pocket tells her so. And no matter who tells her to stop going on about it, Maud will get to the bottom of it. Because somewhere in Maud's damaged mind lies the answer to an unsolved 70-year-old mystery. One everyone has forgotten about.

Everyone, except Maud . . .

We shall be meeting to discuss this book on Wednesday 29th August 2018, in the Church Lounge at 8 p.m.. Further details from Shelagh Dixon, tel. 2306940.
